WELCOME TO THE BELLEVILLE THEATRE GUILD

ANNOUNCING OUR 2019-2020 SEASON

Welcome to our 2019 – 2020 Season! – We are closing in on 70 years of continuous live community theatre in Belleville! Have you ever wanted to get involved in some way with live theatre? The rewards are many, whether you are interested in onstage acting – our audition dates are listed beside each play in this brochure – or perhaps you are better suited to some backstage work. An organization like the Belleville Theatre Guild survives on volunteers. We have so many opportunities for you! Perhaps you simply want to work front of house, greeting the public during our performances. Or you may want to delve more deeply into the world of live theatre. Opportunities exist for backstage work such as stage mangers and assistants, set builders or painters, providing props for our productions, lighting and sound, costumes. Whatever your skill set – the theatre has an opportunity for you.

Join us at our open house on September 27 at 7:00 pm to learn more and meet the people that will help you find a new home in theatre!

MORE THAN YOU EXPECT... AT THE THEATRE

The Belleville Theatre Guild presents its new season of five full-length productions as it has for over 68 years, but that is not the whole story. Original one-act plays in August, music evenings during the year, DocFest in the Spring, and a variety of other events will keep you on the edge of your seat all year long. Check your local paper or, better still, sign up for our newsletter.

  Join the conversation, visit us on Facebook and Twitter and on our website, bellevilletheatreguild.ca

OUTSIDE MULLINGAR by John Patrick Shanley

OCTOBER 3 - 19, 2019

Preview: OCTOBER 1

Director: Liz Marshall

SYNOPSIS

Shanley has a knack for storytelling and this quirky Irish love story is both bittersweet and deliciously funny. Two generations of the Reillys and Muldoons, farming families in modern-day rural Ireland, who live side by side, harbour a lingering grudge over a tiny parcel of land between them that could threaten the happiness of their children.

CLIFFHANGER

by James Yaffe

NOV. 28 - DEC. 14, 2019

Preview: NOVEMBER 26

Director: Lisa Morris

SYNOPSIS

For Professor Lowenthal, there's no need to look beyond the ideals of Socrates. But will Socratic ideals hold up when a bust of Socrates turns into an ideal weapon and ethical debate turns into ethical dilemma? What happens when life and death and tenure and grades hang in the balance and everyone's a philosopher all of a sudden, even the detective on the case?

TEMPTING PROVIDENCE

by Robert Chafe

JANUARY 30 – FEBRUARY 15, 2020

Preview: JANUARY 28

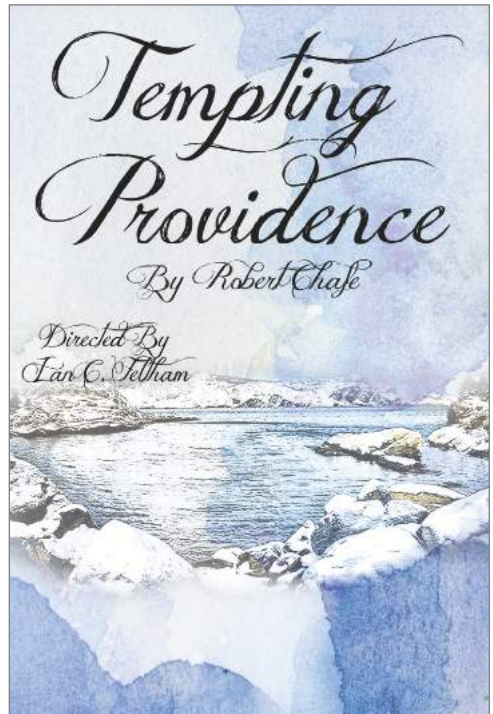

Director: Ian C. Feltham

SYNOPSIS

This almost forgotten story of a Canadian hero tells of duty, courage, love and change. It's based on the life of a young British nurse, Myra Grimsley, who in 1921 signed on for two years to serve as the sole health care provider for 300 miles of the sparsely settled coast of Newfoundland - and stayed for seventy, raising a family and being honoured by her country.

MAMMA MIA!

by Benny Andersson & Björn Ulvaeus

APRIL 9 – 26, 2020

Preview: APRIL 7

Director: Steve Forrester

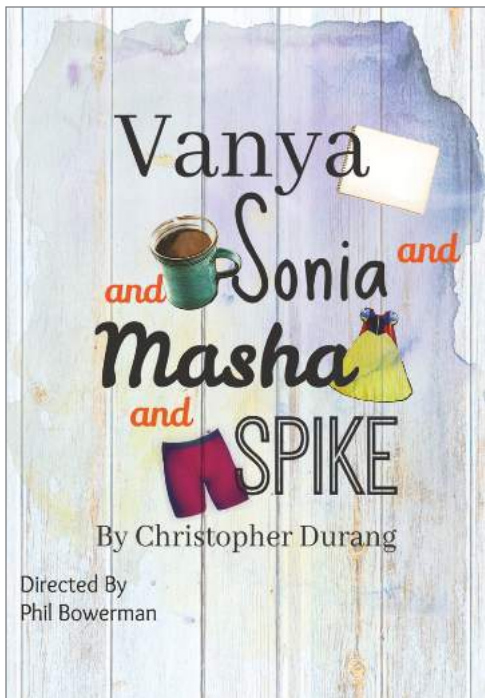

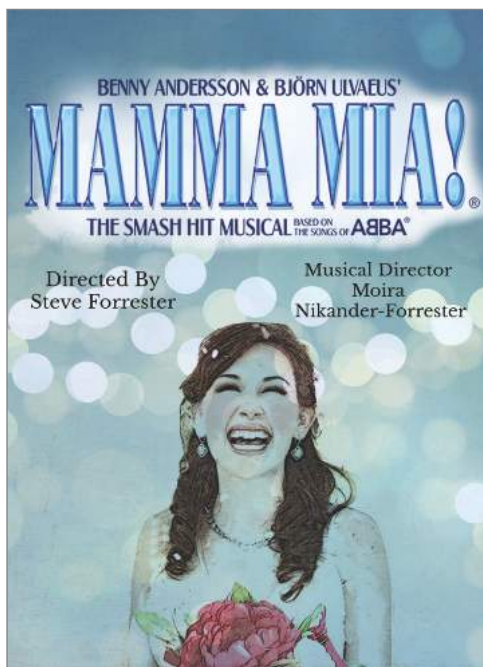

Musical Director: Moira Nikander-Forrester

SYNOPSIS

In a change of time frame for the musical, Mamma Mia is the story of a young girl living on a Greek island, who longs for her father to be at her wedding. Unknown to her mother, a single parent, she sends wedding invitations to the three men she believes could be her father. All three turn up and then the fun begins...With toe tapping, sing-along music by ABBA, this has become one of the most popular musicals ever!

Auditions:

- Sunday, November 10, 2 pm

VANYA AND SONIA AND MASHA AND SPIKE

by Christopher Durang

JUNE 4 - 20, 2020

Preview: JUNE 2

Director: Phil Bowerman

SYNOPSIS

This Tony award-winning comedy for best play is about love, life and family. Vanya and Sonia have never left their childhood home in Bucks County, PA, while their sister, Masha, has been travelling the world as a successful actress. A surprise visit from Masha and her boy-toy, Spike, throws the normally quiet household into utter chaos and an intoxicating mixture of lust, rivalry and regret.
